Surrounding Area

Restaurant recommendations:

- Il Geranio, 10 kms on the road towards Isola Rossa
- La Tana di Li Mazzoni, 8 kms on the road towards Isola Rossa
- Da Paolino Trattoria (rustic Sardinian cooking at its best!), in Trinita D'Agultu
- La Locanda del Mare, Located in La Ciaccia, is a wonderful seafood restaurant
- In the seaside village of Isola Rossa there are a number of restaurants, a marina, pizzerias and bars. Our favourite is Il Coccodrillo, where they have evenings of live music during the summer months

Useful places:

- Trinita D'Agultu – 17kms away

Where you will find restaurants and shops, as well as a petrol station, police station and a bank.

- Santa Teresa Gallura – 38kms away

This is the nearest main town to Costa Paradiso, with plenty of restaurants, shops and markets.

- Sassari – 65kms away

A cosmopolitan city with shopping centres, restaurants and large supermarkets.

Fresh Food Markets, open all year round

- Wednesday – Santa Teresa Gallura
- Friday – Trinita D'Agultu
- Saturday - Valledoria

Beaches

Costa Paradiso

Li Cossi – the best beach in the area is found by walking along the headland near the diving centre for about 5 minutes, with a small beach bar open June – Sept offering cold drinks, sandwiches, as well as chair and umbrella hire.

Surrounding Area

Cala Sarraino – just north of Costa Paradiso, this is a beautiful beach with a restaurant that overlooks the sea

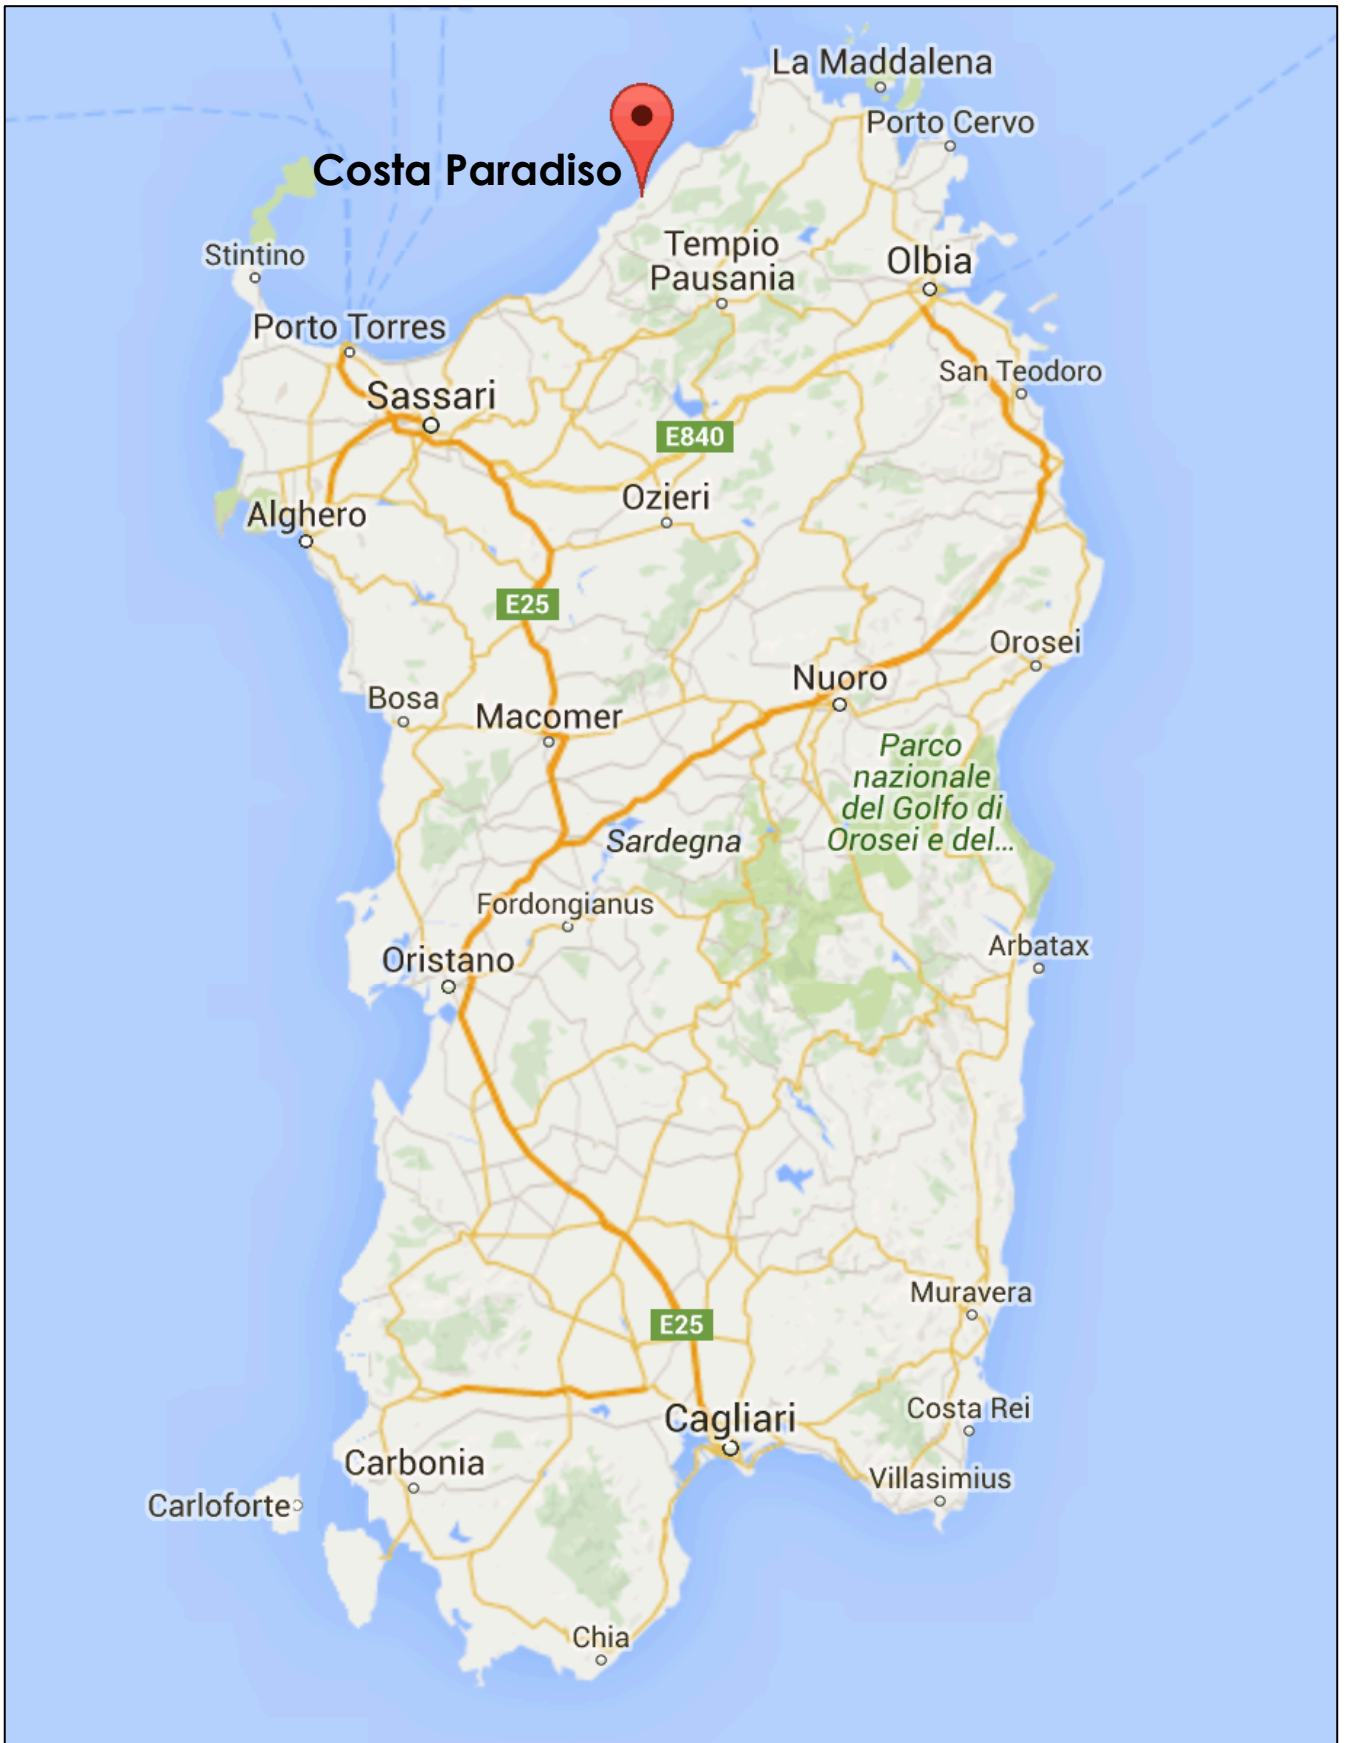

La Marinedda – you can rent and take surf lessons here, and also rent canoes. There are also a couple of beach shacks for snacks.

Palau – beautiful beach, and some good restaurants

Porto Pollo – ideal for windsurfing , you will also find a lovely beachside restaurant

Culture

For a nice afternoon out, if you can drag yourself away from the pool or beach, visit a local Nuraghe, which are pre-historic dwellings, such as Nuraghe Tuttusoni, which is about 12 km north of Costa Paradiso, off the road heading towards Santa Teresa Gallura.
